

POSITION	SECTION/DIVISION	EDUCATION	EXPERIENCE	TRAINING	PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS	JOB DESCRIPTION	DEADLINE
(1) PROJECT TECHNICAL ASSISTANT IV (Contract of Service)	Nuclear Materials Research Section/Atomic Research Division	Bachelor’s Degree relevant to the job	None required	None required	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Preferably graduate of BS Geology, or related earth/environmental science courses• Geologist license (RA 1080) is an advantage• With particular interest in field geology, geochemistry, and tectonics, geologic mapping experience is an advantage	A. Assist in the implementation of the project’s activities, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">a. Fieldwork planning, mapping and sample collectionb. Sample preparation and analysisc. Mineral and whole-rock geochemical data analysis and interpretationd. Geochronology (zircon U-Pb dating) and isotope geochemistry data analysis and interpretation B. Provide support for other tasks needed for the successful implementation of the project	17-May-2025